

15 Aug 75

Donald M. Kendall (China) - Herb Caen says Kendall, board chairman of Pepsi-Cola, has passed through San Francisco several times recently on trips to China; suggests this may be in connection with setting up a Pepsi-Cola plant there.

Kendall was a member of the board (of trustees?) of the Richard Nixon Foundation, before it was dissolved.

See entry 13 Aug 75, Nixon (Mao).

SFC 15 Aug 75, Herb Caen

China - See entry, Donald M. Kendall.

Ziegler has been named manager of international services for the consulting engineering firm of Syska and Hennessy. Firm has offices in Washington, Paris and Teheran, and specializes in mechanical and electrical engineering problems. Its executive vice president in New York says Ziegler will have "extensive responsibilities for our work in the Middle East."

SFC 16 Aug 75 [AP]

NYT 16 Aug 75, Notes on People