

The Major Events of the Day

International

Prime Minister James Callaghan of Britain last night announced his Cabinet. He named Anthony Crosland, Foreign Secretary and Michael Foot, Lord President of the Council, a pivotal post that makes him the leader of the House of Commons. There was no change in two principal Cabinet posts. Roy Jenkins remains as Home Secretary, and Denis Healey stays on as Chancellor of the Exchequer. Mr. Crosland, who had been Secretary of State for the Environment, succeeds Mr. Callaghan in the Foreign Secretaryship. Mr. Foot, who had been Employment Secretary, was the runner-up in the Labor leadership elections. [Page 1, Column 8.]

Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger warned that the United States would proceed to explore the ocean floor and mine its mineral wealth if an international agreement was not reached soon on a new law of the sea. His speech at a meeting in New York was clearly intended to prod the slow-paced negotiations in the current round of the United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea. [1:4.]

National

Jimmy Carter apologized for using the term "ethnic purity" in the pledge he made in Indiana last Tuesday to defend the stability of established neighborhoods. The echo of those words and others he used in the same context—references to "black intrusion" and "alien groups"—was heard as he began campaigning for the Pennsylvania primary on April 27. Representative Andrew Young of Georgia, Mr. Carter's principal advocate in black communities in the North and South, told him that his remarks were "a disaster for the campaign." [1:1-2.]

Ostensibly committed to the candidacy of Senator Henry M. Jackson, Pennsylvania's most powerful labor leaders are nevertheless attempting to enhance Senator Hubert H. Humphrey's Presidential aspirations by thwarting Jimmy Carter's campaign in the state's Democratic primary on April 27. Their plan was made known following an enthusiastic reception for Senator Humphrey at the A.F.L.-C.I.O. state convention in Pittsburgh. [1:1.]

The Senate reached final agreement on a food stamp reform bill that would for the first time set a gross income ceiling for the

The Other News

International

German publication assesses U.S. at 200. Page 2

Lebanese leftists hint at extension of truce. Page 3

Schmidt appears to shun European leadership. Page 5

Peking shifts blur factional lines. Page 8

Government and Politics

House approves funds for B-1 bomber. Page 12

Harris ends full-scale campaigning. Page 14

Aides expect Ford to clinch nomination. Page 16

Congressmen call hearing on city "political." Page 18

House members seek redirection of city aid. Page 18

Senate to vote on Starvsky bill veto. Page 18

Carey agrees to back school-aid bill. Page 20

Tax abatement for remodeling hotel opposed. Page 20

Assembly vote delays savings bank bill. Page 63

General

Hispanic-American population rises sharply. Page 13

Puerto Rican fishermen battle pollution. Page 13

Claudine Longet charged with manslaughter. Page 17

Doctors won't appeal ruling in Quinlan case. Page 20

Pretzel-munchers celebrate Food Day, too. Page 31

Metropolitan Briefs. Page 39

Eight G.O.P. legislators urge Reid's ouster. Page 39

Police simulate blast that killed 11 at airport. Page 39

New junior high for the deaf is dedicated. Page 39

King of Sweden pays visit to Swedesboro. Page 39

"Dead" man and wife held in insurance swindle. Page 39

Hughes aides questioned about customs matter. Page 42

Industry and Labor

Municipal strike divides San Francisco. Page 1

N.L.R.B. rules in newspaper ethics case. Page 42

Quotation of the Day

"You couldn't call it victory because we didn't run that well. But we ran just well enough to keep going so it really wasn't defeat. We didn't know what to call it and we just decided to call it quits."—Fred R. Harris, withdrawing from active campaigning for the Democratic Presidential nomination. [14:1.]

Sports

New-look Yanks look bad in losing opener, 5-0. Page 47

Defensive stars chosen first in N.F.L. draft. Page 47

Jets pick another quarterback from Alabama. Page 47

Floyd, with 65, leads by a shot in Masters. Page 47

People in Sports: Schultz gets top Cornell post. Page 48

Mets' Seaver faces Expos in opener today. Page 50

Reds wallop Astros, 11-5, as Perez stars. Page 50

Notes on People Page 42

Man in the News Hamilton S. Amersinghe, sea law leader. Page 2

Editorials and Comment Editorials and Letters. Page 36

James Reston: How ships of state change pilots. Page 37

Tom Wicker assays effect of Carter misstep. Page 37

George McWilliam on Southern political style. Page 37

"X" deplors Mrs. Gandhi's "emergency" rule. Page 37

News Analysis James M. Markham views the Lebanon crisis. Page 3

Phillip Shabecoff discusses Ford-Nixon ties. Page 16

Martin Tolchin on U.S. role in New York. Page 18

CORRECTION

In the caption provided by The Associated Press for a photograph that appeared in The Times on Thursday, the names of Pauline Feingold and Roz Lichten were transposed. Miss Feingold was also incorrectly identified as chairman of the New York Urban Coalition. She is chairman of the New York Women in Criminal Justice.

Advertising News	Page 62	Grains	Page 59
Amer. Exchange	Page 59	Market Indicators	Page 54
Bond Sales	Page 58	Market Place	Page 54
Business Briefs	Page 56	Money	Page 56
Business Records	Page 58	Mutual Funds	Page 52
Commodities	Page 59	N.Y. Stock Exch.	Page 54
Dividends	Page 54	Out-of-Town	Page 57
Foreign Exchange	Page 57	Over the Counter	Page 52