News Summary

NYTimes Wednesday, June 29, 1977 JUN 2 9 1977

International

An American-Soviet summit meeting may soon be in prospect. The White House said that President Carter would like to meet with President Leonid I. Brezhnev, possibly this year, but that no time or place had been set. Officials said that the two leaders might hold an informal meeting in Alaska, similar to the three-day conference President Ford held with Mr. Brezhnev in Vladivostok in late 1974. [Page A1, Cols. 4-5.]

Israel denied that it was unwilling to discuss all occupied territories in any peace talks with the Arabs. The Israeli Foreign Ministry said there was no basis for the State Department to have made such an assumption in a statement issued Monday by the Carter Administration. [A1:3.]

Loans to aid Chile's poor farmers have been blocked at least temporarily "to see what changes might develop in the human rights situation in Chile," Hodding Carter 3d, the State Department spokesman, disclosed. The nearly $10 million in loans have been approved by Congress, and the department's decision to defer action on them for 30 to 60 days came after a dispute within the Carter Administration. [A9:1.]

National

Production of the B-I supersonic bomber was supported in a vote by the House after a heated, sometimes emotional debate. The chamber acted within 48 hours of President Carter's expected decision on the future of the expensive bomber, which the Air Force hopes will succeed the B-52 as the nation's major strategic bomber. The full cost of the program could reach $100 billion over 30 years. [A1:6.]

Government control over Richard M. Nixon's Presidential papers and tape recordings was upheld by the Supreme Court by a vote of 7 to 2. In holding the 1974 law constitutional, the Court found that Mr. Nixon was "a legitimate class of one," different from other Presidents and subject to special treatment by Congress because of a possibility that his materials might otherwise have been destroyed. Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justice William H. Rehnquist each filed vehement and detailed dissents. [A1:1-2.]

Residential users of heating oil would be exempt from a proposed new tax on domestically produced oil if Congress sustains a vote by the House Ways and Means Committee. The panel thus reversed a decision of two weeks ago under heavy pressure from Northeastern and rural Southern Congressmen. They had threatened to kill the tax on domestic oil if their constituents were not protected against increased heating costs. The rural Representatives got an exemption for users of propane from new taxes. [A1:1-2.]

The sheriff of Mobile County, Ala., and eight aides were indicted by a Federal grand jury, which accused them of plotting to allow a prisoner to escape from the Mobile jail and then fatally shooting him from ambush. The prisoner, Louis Wallace, who was serving a life term for murder, was killed last Oct. 12. [A1:5-6.]

The nation's only Federal prison exclusively for women, at Alderson, W. Va., will within a month become the only maximum security facility for women in the Federal prison system. It will begin receiving convicts regarded dangerous, serving long terms and of such notoriety that their escape would embarrass officials in Washington and at the prison. [A1:2-4.]

Cost-of-living raises for members of Congress, Federal judges and other top Government officials were rejected in the House by a vote of 397 to 20. The chamber acted in advance of a vote today on a proposal to roll back a $12,900 Congressional raise that took effect earlier this year. [34:1.]

Metropolitan

Frustrated in hunting a killer, the New York City police began an extraordinary canvass of 2,000 government agencies, businesses, clubs and other groups in the United States and Canada. In a questionnaire the police sought to trace all 28,000 .44-caliber Charter Arms Bulldogs—the type used in shootings that have killed five persons in the Bronx and Queens and wounded six in 11 months. More than 100 policemen are now trying to find the murderer who calls himself "Son of Sam." [A1:5-6.]

Governor Carey named three members to the New York State Emergency Financial Control Board. They are John C. Sawhill, president of New York University; Francis J. Barry, president of Circle Lines, and Stanley S. Shuman, executive vice president of Allen & Company, investment bankers. [37:3.]

Business/Finance

Rates for moving crude oil through the trans-Alaska pipeline proposed by oil companies were sharply cut, at least for the present, by order of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Interim rates set by the commission in a 9-to-0 decision are not expected to cut fuel costs to consumers, but would raise by many millions of dollars a year the oil revenues of the State of Alaska. The oil companies are expected to appeal the ruling in court. [45:6.]

A grand jury inquiry by the Justice Department of criminal tax fraud allegations against General Motors was ordered continued by Federal District Judge James P. Churchill. But the judge barred any disclosure of the grand jury's findings to the Internal Revenue Service while the investigation was proceeding, except when it was needed to obtain "technical assistance" and then only with his permission. [45:3.]

Stock prices retreated sharply as weakness in steel issues spread to other heavy industry groups and many bluechip stocks. The Dow Jones industrial average dropped 8.4 points to 915.62, bringing its decline in the last two sessions to more than 14 points. [45:4.]

Index

The state of the s
International
Official white opposition in South
Africa to broaden	.A2
15 killed as rival Palestinians battle in Beirut outskirts	A3
Fleet sparkles in jubilee tribute to Queen Elizabeth	A3 Mozambique asks U.N. for arms to defend against Rhodesians	A4
Top African leaders to face decision on Rhodesia	A5
Peking rebuffs U.S. effort to widen
exchanges	A6
World News Briefs	A8
Government/Politics
Beame tells executives and donors
of his accomplishments	63
General	*
Jury to get case against two Filipino nurses	A11
Around the Nation	A14
Yonkers officials react angrily to
State Comptroller's ruling	34
Metropolitan Briefs	35
Carey rebuked by G.O.P. on Peyser	35
appointment Five Fire Island beaches closed	35
Carey must act on bill banning all	UU
books with nude child pictures	35
State aide gives names of 80 Medicaid doctors to prosecutors	35
Two F.B.I. agents said to know of
New Haven wiretaps Nassau prosecutor orders curb on	37
plea bargaining	63
Beame says Concorde can't meet	00
noise rules	63
T., J., /T -1
Industry/Labor
Carter urged to lead labor law drive	A15
Arbitrator awards raises to 37,000	A15
private hospital workers	38
Factory jobs up in New York City	38
Education/Welfare
Court decision on tuition refund	20
cheers colleges	36

The Living S	Section
Celebrate with sale	mon	17
An autistic child, i	five years later	17
An autistic child, in Personal Health: I	Problems under the sun		17
60-Minute Gourme	t	18
All About: Sunglas	sses	18
Wine Talk: Superma	arket legislation	19
Screen: "The Chea		63
to be a blended		21
Shirley Temple B	lack given children's-film awar		27
Ballet: Nureyev's "		21
		22
don remarkably		22
Eileen Brady's de	but augurs well	00
for Stuttgart		26
Jazz Festival: Eubie	Blake at Rain-	na ten
bow Room	0.00	28
Art Pepper on sa		28
The Hendersons	in retrospect	28
TV: High Court s	says performer
may sue over ne	ews coverage	30
ABC schedules
"Washington" for	premiere week	30
Obituaries
Maj. Gen. L. C. Jay	nes veteran of both World Wars		34
Mrs. Philip K. Wrig		-
industrialist	giey, widow of	34
mustranst		OT
Business/Fina	200
		- 1
Labor Department
leaks on econom		45
Kissinger warns of
nomic crisis		45
About Real Estat	e: Uplift for
blighted Queens	project	58
Page	10	ige
Advt. News55	Exchange Rates
Amer. Stocks54 Bond Sales50	Highs and Lows	47
Bond Sales50	Market Place	46
Business Records 46 Commodities53	Market Profile	52
Corp. Affairs51	Money	44
Counter List44	N.Y. Stocks Out-of-Town	48
Dividends50	Out-01-10WII	04
		_

Weekend

FRIDAY IN Che New York Eimes

Quotation of the Day

"We, of course, are not blind to appellant's [Richard M. Nixon's] plea that we recognize the social and political realities of 1974. It was a period of political turbulence unprecedented in our history. But this court is not free to invalidate acts of Congress based upon inferences that we may be asked to draw from our personalized reading of the contemporary scene or recent history."—Associate Justice William J. Brennan Jr., in an opinion upholding the law giving the Government control over Mr. Nixon's Presidential papers and tape recordings. [A1:2.]

Health/Science
Scientist at work: a doomsday	416
Some mills exempted from U.S.	110
safety rules	416
Scientists seek way to speed plant growth	34
Sports
McEnroe gains Wimbledon semi- finals	39
Cauthen wins 3 races in first day	107157
without apprentice "bug"	39
Blue Jays down Yankees, 8 to 5	39
Mets 18 back; no remedy in sight	39
Leafs replace ailing Kelly as coach	41
Sports "festival" proposed by Kane	41
Chinaglia will play in Coast games	42
Palafox's protégé stuns Wimbledon	43
Features/Notes
Notes on People	19
Going Out Guide	23
News Analysis
Drew Middleton examines Carter's 110
A. H. Raskin on fence-mending by two new union chiefs	45
Editorials/Comment
Editorials and Letters	30
James Reston appraises British socio-economic changes	31
C. L. Sulzberger discusses the demise of SEATO	31

Mark Helprin: Seeing things on a crabbing excursion