Controller of Currency Finds No Wrongdoing in Bank Case NYTimes AUG 29 1972

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 (AP)

The controller of the Currency said today that there was no wrongdoing involved in the awarding of a national bank charter to applicants including a Republican fund-raiser and of $25,000 to President Nixon's a contributor to President Nixon's re-election campaign.

the controller, William B. Camp. election campaign.

"This case was obviously so good on the banking and eco-nomic factors that we could for the charter for the Ridgegood on the banking and ecohandle it with dispatch," he told way National Bank at Minnenewsmen.

Mr. Camp's comments came as he released a letter to Rep-Wright Patman, resentative chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee. Mr. Patman had requested the file on the case after news reports linked one of the bank applicants, Dwayne Andreas, with a the letter to Mr. Patman. $25,000 contribution to the President's campaign.

Vehement Denial

been exercised in the awarding listed their addresses of the charter.

to by anyone in the Administra- dress was listed as Miami tion or in the re-election cam- Beach. paign of President Nixon, he relican or a Farm Laborite, if cording to records released by you're not a good guy, you're Mr. Camp.

Mr. andreas's $25,000 condeclared.

[Edward Driscoll of the Minnesota Department of Commerce told The New approval of the charter for a bank in a Minneapolis suburbhad come "pretty fast" and prior to action by the state, contrary to custom.]

Mr. Andreas is a contributor campaign. He gave the contribution to Kenneth H. Dahlberg, "This is one of the cleanest Midwest campaign finance cases I've ever seen," declared chief for the Presidential chief for the Presidential re-

> Mr. Dahlberg was also listed tonka, Minn.

The application was filed

May 26 of this year and approved by Mr. Camp Aug. 22.

"The Controller's office at tempts to process all new bank proposals within 90 days after receiving a fully documented application," said Mr. Camp in

Other applicants included Frederick L. Deming, who also was designated agent for the In vehement terms, Mr. Camp bank; C. Bernard Jacobs, and said no political influence had Eugene T. Montgomery. All Minneapolis with the excep-Asked if he had been talked tion of Mr. Andreas, whose ad-

Each of the five sapplicants plied that "nobody has ever is a director of National City called this office" about this Bank of Minneaplis, which is "I have been here 37 years, and I don't give a damn whether you're a Democrat or a Republication of the Ridgeway bank, action of the Ridgeway bank actio tribution turned up in the bank accounts of Barnard L. Baker, one of the suspects in the June 17 break-in at Democratic na-York Times Friday that the tional headquarters here.