

KPFA News

transcribed from tape

6 Sep 72

[Judy Miller, Pacifica Radio, Washington:]

Democratic national chairman Jean Westwood told a news conference on Tuesday [5 Sep] in Salt Lake City, Utah, that last week a member of her press staff found two workmen installing a little red box in a wall next to the party offices. The box, described as matchbook size, with wires hanging from it, has been turned over to lawyers representing the Democrats in the Watergate case for further study.