

---

Stans Denies
GOP Is All
That Solvent

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Maurice Stans, chief fund-raiser for President Nixon, says the campaign needs at least $9 million more.

Stans denied published stories that the Nixon campaign is on such solid financial ground that it is suggesting that some potential contributors give money to GOP candidates for the Senate.

“We have directed money to Senate and House candidates,” Stans said, “but only when asked by contributors for advice on whether the need is greatest beyond the President’s requirements.”

---