Patman Lectures Empty Seats As Nixon Aides Fail to Appear

By Karlyn Barker Washington Post Staff Writer

Banking and Currency Com- ness "will be the political mittee lectured to four empty witness chairs yesterday when long as Mr. Nixon shows con-Gregor, who had refused to Nixon failed to show up for ple.' hearings into the Watergate bugging incident and alleged Rep. William B. Widnall (Rirregularities in re-election N.J.) their ranking committee-the Watergate incident. campaign financing.

Efforts to subpoena their issue.

Tex.), the Committee's chair- it seven days in advance. man, blamed Mr. Nixon for the absence of the four, saying attended the morning meetthe President "has pulled ing, two short of a quorum. down an iron curtain of se- The one Republican in attendcrecy to keep the American ance, William Frenzel of Minpeople from knowing the nesota, criticized Patman for facts.

morning hearing at the Ray-forts. burn Building with a prepared speech, said he had been notified by attorneys for the Com- waited 45 minutes before admittee for the Re-Election of the President that they had with only 14 members present, vestigated. advised John Mitchell, former including Republican Rep. campaign chairman and attorney general; Clark Mac-Gregor, committee chairman and Maurice Stans, finance chairman, not to attend the hearing.

The Texas Democrat said the fourth man, John Dean, to suppoens bank and to the Nixon advertising and media President, sent word just be- stead. fore the meeting that his aplege protecting presidential as cratic attendance at the meet- Nixon committee listed a his constitutents asking that was vague with respect to fu-luse of the funds.

The chairman of the House said the absence of the witfour top aides to President tempt for the American peo-

But Republicans, led by man, boycotted the hearing. Widnall sent a letter to Pattestimony also collapsed when man accusing him of "high-President's re-election committhe Committee failed twice to handed" behavior and chargget a quorum to vote on the ing that the meeting was illegal because Committee mem- to front page news . . . be-Wright Patman (D- bers had not been notified of

Only 17 committee members not keeping the Committee in-Patman, who arrived at the formed on his investigation ef-

> Patman then scheduled another meeting for 3 p.m. He Garry E. Brown, of Michigan.

The lack of a quorum prevoting to subpoena the wit-

A spokesman for Patman

Congress press for an investi-ture steps he might take to gation of the Watergate issue, pursue and publicize any further investigation.

> testify, said yesterday that "the grand jury had indicted those who are indictable" in

> "Innuendo in the press has not indicted anyone," the tee chairman said. "The Washington Post is elevating gossip cause it is frustrated that the McGovern policy is shared by only 10 or 15 per cent of the people."

> MacGregor added, however, that "of course, more Democrats than that will support McGovern.'

In another development yesterday, the General Accounting Office announced that campaign media expenditures for both President Nixon and journing the session again Sen. McGovern are being in-announcement was The made by Philip S. Hughes, director of the office of fedvented the Committee from eral elections in the GAO, after Lawrence F. O'Brien, the nesses or, as suggested by McGovern campaign chair-Rep. Bill Chappell of Florida, man, asked for a GAO inquiry to subpoena bank and re-elec- into the November Group, the agency.

In a letter to Hughes yesterpearance would violate the said Committee staffers had day, O'Brien said the financial principle of executive privi- tried to drum up better Demo- disclosure reports of the ing "but it's a bad time of $595,000 payment to the Nov-Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D. year" with Congress so close ember Group without any fur-Wis.), who read letters from to adjourning. Patman himself ther accounting of the actual