

By DOUGLAS E. KNEELAND Special to The New York Times

Nixon had "no respect for con-stitutional government and per-Presidential nominee. They apsonal freedom"

On a day when he used some clared: guage of the campaign to link constitutional government and the President to the Watergate personal freedom." affair and alleged acts of po-litical sabotage against the Democrats, Mr. McGovern told the history of this country has more than 400 members of Local 107 of the United Elec-McGovern educational rights," Nr. trical Workers here:

his agents over to wiretap the Democratic National Commit-tee a President who will send his agents over to wiretap the days left. They may be the most tee, a President who will send saboteurs inside the Democratic lives." ranks to try to sabotage an-other major national party, that State College, a former black is the kind of a man who won't institution that still has avlarge hesitate to wiretap your union hall, or your law office, or your university, or your church or keyen work best and the transformed with holm of Procedure with even your home. And that's the real significance of the Water-with him to New York for a gate affair."

The union members had

ESSINGTON, Pa., Oct. 19—packed their hall near the Senator George McGovern Westinghouse plant from which charged today that President they had taken time off without plauded him loudly, and he de-

"This man has no respect for Declaring that "this Administration more than any other in

"Think about those things. important 20 days of your

A little later at Cheyney rally in her Bedford-Stuyvesant district.

After repeating his charges against the Nixon Administration, he called upon the 4,000 enthusiastic young people in the college gymnasium to help him put together a "coalition of conscience" composed of people of all races and income levels to provide "the kind of majority for decency that we need to win this election on Nov. 7."

Before Mr. McGovern left Toledo, Ohio, this morning, he discussed the Watergate, and political espionage issues with newsmen briefly at his hotel and at the airport.

He termed the denial vesterday by Ronald L. Ziegler, Mr. Nixon's press secretary, that anyone at the White House had been connected with either case, a "total fabrication."

"I think Nixon is up to his ears in political sabotage," Senator McGovern charged.

"They're a cutthroat crew," he said of the Republican Ad-ministration. "Nixon's having families folowed. All the families of the [Democratic] candi dates have been followed. I don't think there's anything Nixon wouldn't stoop to. They're really a corrupt regime, this Nixon bunch.