

State figure

$10,000 Found

BY FRANK ZAHOUR

Total of $10,000 in $100 bills was found in wreckage of the United Air Lines airplane yesterday. Police said the money belonged to Mrs. F. Howard Hunt, Jr., whose husband has been indicted in connection with the Watergate case. She said the money was found in a package which was inside a piece of luggage

St.

Dorothy Hunt, 52, of 1120 River Rd., Potomac, Md.

Michele Clark, 29, of 8091 S. Oglesby

Wreckage

DEC 21 1972

baggage that belonged to the woman, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, 52, of Potomac, Md., who was killed in the Friday crash.

Her husband, Howard Hunt, Jr., is one of seven who were indicted by a federal grand jury Sept. 15 in connection with the Watergate incident. He is a former consultant to Charles W. Colson, White House counsel.

The 1972-1973 edition of Who's Who in America lists Hunt's office address as The White House.

Police said they also found $500 in bills of smaller denominations that belong to Mrs. Hunt. They did not say where the smaller bills were found.

Mrs. Hunt apparently was coming to Chicago to visit a cousin, Harold C. Carlson, of suburban Flossmoor.

Hunt, a former White House consultant and one-time CIA official, was indicted on charges of conspiring to help Democratic National Committee headquarters in the Watergate Hotel.

Hunt was not one of the five inside the Democratic offices indicted charged that he had been sent but had left before police arrested

Mrs. Hunt, the former Do

Wetzel and Hunt were married in 1949.