

mer chairman of the Demo cratic National Committee asked a federal court yester day to award him $11 million in a cross-motion filed in re sponse to a $25 million sur filed against him last Septem tee for the Re-election of the President.

sult, filed by chairman Francis break-in at Democratic head-L. Jale and finance chairman quarters. Maurice H. Stans, was Stans also has filed a $5 mil-"frivolous bosh in fact and ir lion libel suit against O'Brien. law."

The O'Brien suit, filed in September, charges this State knowingly supplied $114,000 in committee funds as part of a conspiracy to bug the Democratic National Committee's Watergate headquarters. Seven persons, including two former White House aides an the security director for the ber by officials of the Commit re election committee, either pleaded guilty to or were con-victed of charges of conspir-acy, burglary and illegal wire-O'Brien charged in his cross tapping and eavesdropping motion that the committee stemming from the June 17

Stans also has filed a $5 mil-