

SFChronicle APR 19 1973

Public TV to Cover Watergate Senate Hearings

Washington

The Public Broadcasting Service said yesterday that it will provide live television coverage of the Senate hearings on the Watergate case.

The Public Television network affiliated with PBS is available to stations in 234 cities. It said it would provide "gavel-to-gavel coverage" of the hearings scheduled to begin May 15.

United Press