

James Reston's column of April 25 referred to "Liddy, Sloan, McCord and the other convicted conspirators" in the Watergate case. Nobody by the name of Sloan was convicted in this case. The Times and Mr. Reston regret the error.

NYTimes

APR 26 1973