

3 p.m.

4-27-73
CBS-News

.....
[Senator Robert Byrd, voice:] No facts have to this moment been brought to my attention which would indicate that the President himself knew about the Watergate case, approved it, had any involvement in the planning thereof. I think that every indication, however, exists that people at his elbow knew about it, had something to do with it, and have been involved in the cover-up.

[Byrd's statement complete as broadcast in this news segment.]