Became the first member of her family to visit Disney World at Orlando, Fla. Mrs. David Eisenhower, the former Julie Nixon, took a boat ride through a make-believe jungle past make-believe elephants and, at the end of the trip, commented on her father's Watergate speech of Monday night. "I think that the G.O.P. and the rest of the nation will realize that this was just seven men who made a mistake, and others made a mistake by trying to cover it up," she said. "That speech last night was very heartfelt."
