

---

---

MITCHELL CAUTIOUS IN COMMENT ON CASE

Leaving his office at 20 Broad Street in lower Manhattan yesterday, former Attorney General John N. Mitchell was asked to comment on developments in the Watergate case and on the resignation of four of President Nixon's top White House aides.

"I don't know any more than you do," Mr. Mitchell said. "I'll have to wait until I hear what the President has to say."

Asked again, Mr. Mitchell said, "I have no knowledge other than what Mr. Ziegler said today." Ronald L. Ziegler is the White House press secretary.

N Y T

5/2/73