Hunt Was Given Access To 240 Vietnam Cables

NYTimes

By BERNARD GWERTZMAN

Special to The New York Times

partment spokesman, said that Hunt was permitted to see all cable traffice between Washington and Saigon between April 1 and Nov. 30, 1963, and was allowed to take copies of Mr. Bray said that "I am not man and the copies of the classified ables.

Mr. Macomber, now the American Ambassador to Turilege and the copies of Mr. Bray said that "I am not man and the copies of the classified ables.

Mr. Macomber, now the American Ambassador to Turilege and the copies of the classified ables.

Mr. Bray said that "I am not man and the copies of the classified ables.

Mr. Macomber, now the American Ambassador to Turilege and the cables.

Mr. Bray said that "I am not man and the cables are captured to see the classified ables.

Mr. Macomber, now the American Ambassador to Turilege and the cables are cables.

lic during the Pentagon papers trial in Los Angeles yesterday, Hunt said that another White House aide, Charles W. Colson perhaps more, would not di-had asked him to examine the vulge his purpose in inspecting cables as part of a plan to forge a State Department cable link-service division," he said. ing the late President Kennedy with the assassination of the from newsmen whether it was South Vietnamese President, proper for the State Depart-the State Department has been White House-to have access brought directly into the Water- to such documents. gate affair, and Mr. Bray seemed dearly unhappy as he had to White House staff member, "in answer dozen of questions at good standing" asks the State the regular noon news confer-Department for assistance, the

According to Mr. Bray, "on or about Sept. 20, 1971, there was a request from a member of the White House staff—Mr. that the first Mr. Rogers Young—that Mr. Hunt be given learned of Hunt's access to the from Saigon between April I news reports from Los Angeles and Nov. 30, 1963."

WASHINGTON, May 8—The State Department acknowledged today that E. Howard Henry A. Kissinger's National Hunt Jr., a Watergate conspirator, was given access to secret Vietnam diplomatic cables in 1971 at the request of David R. Young Jr., then a White House aide.

Mr. Bray said that Mr. roung, who had been detached from Henry A. Kissinger's National Security Council staff to work for the Domestic Council under John D. Ehrlichman, telephoned William B. Macomber Jr. with the request that Hunt be allowed to see the classified WASHINGTON, May 8 — The Mr. Bray said that Mr. Young, Charles W. Bray 3d, the de-

April 1 and Nov. 30, 1963, and was allowed to take copies of 240 cables away with him.

According to Watergate grand jury testimony made public during the Pentagon papers "But I do know from records"

Ngo Dinh Diem, in November, ment to allow someone like Hunt—who was then working This was the first time that as a part-time consultant to the department complies.

access to cable traffic to and documents was when he read