

Arraignment of Segretti
Expected Next Thursday

LOS ANGELES, May 10 (UPI)—Donald H. Segretti will be arraigned in United States District Court in Tampa, Fla., next Thursday on charges of mailing fictitious campaign literature, his lawyer here said yesterday.

Mr. Segretti, 32 years old, has been referred to in published reports as an important figure in alleged "dirty tricks" by pro-Nixon forces against Democratic Presidential contenders.

He was indicted by a Federal grand jury in Orlando, Fla., and surrendered to the United States Marshal's office here Friday. He was released on $10,000 bond.

He was charged in the indictment with preparing and distributing a fake letter purportedly written by Senator Edmund S. Muskie of Maine.
