At the Camp David Retreat

~~NY Times~~ MAY 14 1973

THURMONT, Md., May 13
(UPI) — President Nixon and members of his family spent a quiet day here today at the Camp David retreat.

A spokesman said that the President also worked in his study, possibly completing a proposal for a bipartisan commission to recommend campaign reforms in the wake of the Watergate scandals.

Mr. Nixon has been at his Catocin Mountain retreat since Friday. He was joined yesterday by Mrs. Nixon and early today by his daughter Julie and her husband, David Eisenhower.

The Nixons' elder daughter, Tricia, and her husband, Edward F. Cox, spent Mother's Day with his family in New York.
