

SFC
5-16-73

Rehnquist to Withdraw in Mitchell Cases

Champaign, Ill.

Justice William H. Rehnquist of the U.S. Supreme Court said Monday that he would disqualify himself from any case that might come before the high court involving his friend and former boss John Mitchell.

Mitchell, former U.S. attorney general, has been indicted on charges of perjury, obstruction of justice and conspiracy to defraud the U.S.

Associated Press