Text of a Statement on Testimony by Walters

MAY 1-6 1973

Special to The New York Times WASHINGTON, May 15— Following is the text of a statement by Senator Stuart Symington, acting chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, on White House links to Central Intelligence Agency actions:

In sworn testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee vesterday Mon-

Committee yesterday, Monday, May 14, the deputy director of the C.I.A., Lieut. Gen. Vernon Walters, testifield to a remarkable series of events:

On June 23, 1972, General Walters, who has been at the Walters, who has been at the C.I.A. about six weeks, said he was asked to go to the White House with C.I.A. director Dichard Helms at 1 P.M. that afternoon. There they met with Mr. H. R. Haldeman and Mr. Ehrlichman in the latter's office.

General Walters said he was told by Mr. Haldeman that the Watergate incident might be exploited by the opposition, and that it had been decided that he, Wal-opposition, and that it had been decided that he, Walters, should go to the acting F.B.I. director, Mr. Patrick Gray, and should tell Mr. Gray that if the F.B.I. pursued an investigation of certain funds in Mexico, connected with the Watergate case, this inquiry would compromise certain C.I.A. actiivties and resources in Mexico.

Mr. Haldeman specifically bypassed General Walters's superior, Mr. Helms, in asking that only General Walters visit Mr. Gray.

Agreement With Gray General Walters further testified that an appointment with Mr. Gray was made for him immediately, and that he went to see Mr. Gray an hour later. According to his testimony, he told Mr. Gray that senior people at the White House, whom he did not name, had told him that pursuit of the investigations of Mexican financing would unsuit of the investigations of Mexican financing would uncover some of the agency's clandestine activities. Mr. Gray reportedly responded that he was aware that the F.B.I. and C.I.A. do not uncover one another's sources and operations and operations.

General Walters states, however, that on his return to the agency he checked and discovered that investigation of the Mexican financial affair would not compromise any C.I.A. clandestine assets.

following Monday, June 26, and wanted to talk with him about the substance of his conversation with Mr. Haldeman and Mr. Ehrlichman the previous Friday.

Mr. Dean reportedly said that General Walters could call Mr. Ehrlichman to insure that it was all right to talk with him. General Walters then called Mr. Ehrlichman who told him that he could speak with Mr. Dean.

General Walters then testified that at 11:45 A.M. that same day, June 26, he went to see Mr. Dean. Mr. Dean reportedly received him alone. General Walters stated that he told Mr. Dean that after talking with Mr. Gray he had looked into the matter and that the agency was not and that the agency was not compromised in any way in the Watergate bugging and that there was no C.I.A. involvement in the case.

Helms Is Informed

Following this eeting, General Monday meeting, General Walters stated that he returned to the C.I.A. and told Mr. Helms of his conversation with Mr. Dean, and of his denial of any agency involvement in the Watergate case.

the Watergate case.

According to General Walters, Mr. Helms told him that he had handled the situation just right. General Walters also testified that he constantly checked with Mr. Helms during the following events and that Helms assured General Walters that he was acting correctly.

sured General Walters that he was acting correctly.

The next day, June 27th, Mr. Dean reportedly called General Walters again went to see him at his office, Mr. Dean reportedly asked if there was some way the C.I.A. could go bail or pay the salaries of the individuals accused in the Watergate case while they were in iail.

case while they were in jail. General Walters stated that General Walters stated that he told Mr. Dean that there was no way this could be done, that any internal expenditure of funds by the C.I.A. must be reported to the House and Senate oversight committees. General Walters stated that he told Mr. Dean that to spend funds in this way would implicate the way would implicate the agency, and that he, General Walters, was prepared to resign rather than to do this.

General Walters testified that the next day, June 28, that the next day, June 28, Mr. Dean called him again, and that he went to see Mr. Dean for a third time. Mr. Dean reportedly asked if there could have been some

C.I.A. involvement that Genc.i.A. involvement that General Walters did not know about. General Walters said he stated that there could not be.

At one point in the conversation, according to General Walters, Mr. Dean asked if General Walters had any ideas, and General Walters replied, yes, that anyone who was responsible should be fired.

Nixon Visit Threatened

General Walters further testified that he told Mr. Dean that he would have no part in attempting to compromise the C.I.A. in something in which it was not in fact compromised. He said that, if ordered to do so, he would ask to see the Pres-ident and to explain to him how dangerous he thought such an action would be.

On July 5th, General Wal-On July 5th, General Walters received a call, according to his testimony, from Mr. Patrick Gray, the acting director of the F.B.I. Mr. Gray, referring to his previous conversation with General Walters, reportedly said that he could not stop the investigation of the Mexican financing ruless he received. financing unless he received a letter from the director or General Walters stating that such an investigation would damage the agency's assets in Mexico.

that he then went to see Mr. Gray the next day, July 6th, and told him that he had checked this matter and dischecked this matter and discovered that such an investigation would not endanger any C.I.A. assets, that the C.I.A. was totally unconnected with the matter, and that the C.I.A. had no interest in stopping any investigation.

He then testified that he He then testified that he told Mr. Gray the story of his meeting with Mr. Haldeman and Mr. Ehrlichman, and that he had been told to convey his previous message to Mr. Gray. General Walters testified that he repeated to Mr. Gray his determination to region if there termination to resign if there was an attempt to compro-mise the C.I.A. in this matter. According to General Walters' testimony, he saw Mr. Gray again on July 12 at the F.B.I. office, and gave him some additional information regarding material which had already been made available to Mr. Gray with regard to the C.I.A.'s contact the previous year with Mr. Hunt.

Finally, General Watters testified that in late January or early February, 1973, he told Dr. Schlesinger in a general way of the above matters. He testified that, shortly thereafter, Mr. Dean called Dr. Schlesinger and asked if the C.I.A. could have returned from the F.B.I. the package of material that had been sent to the F.B.I. regarding the assistance furnished to Mr. Hunt the previous year.

He testified that he, Mr. Colby, and Dr. Schlesinger discussed the matter and agreed that there was no way this could be done—that it would implicate the C.I.A. in something it was not important. in something it was not implicated in.

General Walters then testi-

General Walters then testified that he went to see Mr. Gray that morning—he did not have the date available—and told him of the request by Mr. Dean, and of the C.I.A.'s decision.

He testified that he thought he later went to Mr. Dean and told him also, that there was no way the C.I.A. could have this material returned.

With respect to this testi-mony, I would like to say the following, based upon the facts we have uncovered to date:

"As I stated yesterday, is clear that senior White House officials were deeply involved in attempts to en-mesh C.I.A. in the Watergate affair and thus take the pres-sure off those who were really responsible.

"Because of security clearance and questions with respect to verbatim release of statements which might af spect to verbatim release of statements which might affect legal proceedings, I do not know when the full transcript of our hearings can be made public. Under those circumstances, I thought this parretive account cheuld hear narrative account should be made public.

"It is very clear to me that "It is very clear to me that there was an attempt to unload major responsibility for the Watergate bugging and cover-up on C.I.A. Under these difficult circumstances and beaver pressures. I he and heavy pressures, I be-lieve that Director Helms and General Walters, who was at all times cooperating with the approval of Mr. Helms, behaved very well with re-spect to this attempt.

Our inquiry of this and other related matters is continuing and we expect to hear testimony from Mr. Helms this Thursday.
