

Ehrlichman 'Willing' to

Los Angeles

District Attorney Joseph Busch said yesterday that former White House aide John D. Ehrlichman has "expressed a willingness" to testify before a Los Angeles county grand jury investigating the break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

However, Busch told a press conference that no formal agreement has been reached with President Nixon's former chief adviser on domestic affairs to appear during the June 5 to 8 hearing scheduled here.

Asked whether Ehrlichman would be subpoenaed if he did not voluntarily agree to appear, the district attorney said:

"That is one of the things we are discussing now."

Testify

In addition to reporting on the negotiations with Ehrlichman, Busch announced that the following persons have agreed to testify:

- Egil (Bud) Krogh, former key assistant to Ehrlichman, and Charles Colson, one-time special counsel to the President both of whom have voluntarily agreed to appear.

- Convicted Watergate break-in participants E. Howard Hunt, Bernard Barker and Eugenio Martinez, plus Felipe Dediego, one of their associates who lives in Miami Beach. All four have been promised immunity for their testimony here.
