

Nixon's Cruise

San Francisco Chronicle 17
★ Thurs., May 17, 1973

Washington

President Nixon and two of his top aides went for a dinnertime cruise on the Potomac River late yesterday.

Joining the chief executive aboard the presidential yacht, the Sequoia, were acting White House Chief of Staff Alexander M. Haig Jr. and press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, a spokesman said.

Haig has been filling the key position left vacant when H. R. Haldeman resigned April 30 amid a flurry of Watergate linked charges.

Associated Press