

DATA SUBPOENAED ON POLITICAL GIFT

HOUSTON, May 16 (AP)—The Federal Government yesterday subpoenaed the bank records of the president of Gulf Resources & Chemical Company, Robert H. Allen, and recalled a Federal grand jury for a special session Friday in connection with a contribution to President Nixon's re-election campaign.

The jury is investigating possible criminal violations involving $89,000, part of a $100,000 contribution by Mr. Allen, who says he personally donated the money. Mr. Allen, who spent two hours with the grand jury last week, has denied that the company contributed to the campaign.

It is unlawful for a corporation to contribute to a political campaign.

United States Attorney Henry J. Novak Jr. filed a subpoena showing that he had personally served the cashier of the First City National Bank with a demand for Mr. Allen's records, Federal court records revealed.

Part of the contribution, $89,000, was traced to a Miami bank account of Bernard L.

Barker, a former agent of the Central Intelligence Agency who was arrested June 17 inside the Watergate headquarters of the National Democratic Executive Committee.

The money traced to Barker's account was in bank drafts from Manuel Ogarrío Daguerre, a Mexico City attorney who represents Gulf Resources. Mr. Allen said last week that routing the money through Mexico was the best way to make the anonymous contribution.
