

ON ARMED Forces Day a week ago Saturday President Nixon turned up in Norfolk, Va., where he shared laughs with Governor Linwood Holton, a fellow Republican, and walked arm-in-arm with him to a flag-flanked speaker's rostrum facing the vast steel side of the aircraft carrier Independence.

19 MAY

Waving happily to throngs of white-clad sailors and their families, the President declared it would be a crime against Americans who died in Indochina to let the Paris peace agreement be destroyed by ceasefire violations.

After the speech, the President, Pat, his aide friend Beebe Robe to Camp David week-end

AP Wirephoto

THE PRESIDENT AND GOV. HOLTON