

From story by Chronicle Correspondent George Murphy on National Governor's Conference, Stateline, Nevada:

.....

There may be a move by one of the Democratic governors to introduce a resolution concerning Watergate. Most observers see this as doomed to failure, because the Democrats cannot muster sufficient votes for passage.

It is also believed that Agnew is here as added insurance to keep the GOP governors from breaking ranks and joining the Democrats.

.....