

Someone besides you and I figure Hunt as the key. This editorial was not written by the man who writes them for our local paper. He has been sick and out several days. It may be canned. I'm trying to check. One of our GOP Senators is the brother of the USAtt'y in Baltimore.... WxPost has carried nix from LA grand jury except small wire story. I rather imagine that if the ~~staff~~ self-considered man of geious, principles and letters has a chance, he'll blab. Partly because he is breaking, partly his ego, partly his hurt. It is time for him to be saying something, given half a chance. (Something heroic, that is.) So, if you see anything out there, you'll know if the Post has carried it. I suspect the LATimes has the best chance...Nothing on local all-news radio here, either. HW 6/8/73
