

Nixon Back in Washington-- Meetings Ahead

Washington

President Nixon returned last night from a long weekend in Florida where he rested in preparation for meetings today on economic and foreign affairs.

His aides said Mr. Nixon will meet first with Treasury Secretary George Shultz, Special Consultant John Connally and Cost of Living Director John Dunlop; later he will meet with Henry Kissinger.

United Press
