

Publisher Seeks to Quash

Subpoena of Hughes Data

NYTimes JUN 12 1973

LAS VEGAS, Nev., June 11 (UPI)—The publisher of The Las Vegas Sun, H. M. Greenspun, began a legal battle today to prevent the Internal Revenue Service from seizing documents he has concerning the financial dealing of Howard R. Hughes, the industrialist.

Mr. Greenspun filed a motion in United States District Court seeking to quash a subpoena served by the I.R.S. ordering him to turn over the documents to the Government tomorrow. Judge Roger Foley did not sign an order immediately.

The motion to quash said the summons was in violation of the First Amendment, as well as Nevada statutes, which protect newspapers from disclosing sources.

Paper Bids Nixon Quit

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 11 (UPI)—The Arkansas gazette, the largest newspaper in the state, called yesterday for the resignation of President Nixon. "There is little confidence in the United States Government, under Mr. Nixon, either at home or abroad. Mr. Nixon should, indeed, resign in the interest of the country and of us all," said The Gazette, which endorsed Senator George McGovern in the 1972 Presidential election.
