

Erllichman Asks
$139,000 for Home

Former Presidential assistant John D. Ehrlichman has placed his six-bedroom house in Great Falls, Va., on the market, according to area realtors.

The multiple listing indicates the Ehrlichmans are asking $139,000 for the home at 330 Chesapeake Dr., Great Falls. The house is situated on more than an acre of land and includes three bathrooms, three fireplaces and recreation and family rooms.

The Georgetown home of H. R. Haldeman, former White House chief of staff, has been on the market for several weeks.