

AP Wirephoto

Martha Departs

Martha Mitchell, carrying travel luggage, left her Fifth avenue apartment in New York yesterday for an unknown destination. Mrs. Mitchell—wife of former U.S. Attorney General John Mitchell, now under indictment for perjury and obstructing justice in a Watergate-related case—got into a waiting station wagon and was driven away. She had no comment. Mitchell is believed still to be occupying the 11th floor apartment.