JUN 2 9 1973 C.I.A. AID TO HUN IN RAIDS HINTED

Rep. Nedzi Says Conspirator Told of Using Equipment Beyond Ellsberg Case

By MARJORIE HUNTER Special to The New York Times WASHINGTON, June 28

Howard Hunt Jr., a convict-E. E. Howard Hunt Jr., a convict-ed Watergate conspirator, was quoted today as saying he had used disguises and other equip-ment supplied him by the Cen-tral Intelligence Agency for projects other than breaking into the office of Dr. Daniel Ellsberg's former psychiatrist, Hunt's testimony came dur-ing day-long questioning by a

Hunt's testimony came dur-ing day-long questioning by a House Armed Services subcom-mittee investigating C.I.A. in-volvement in the Watergate affair. It was his first appear-ance before any of the Senate and House committees investi-gating the Watergate scandal, While the accience was also While the session was closed, while the session was closed, some of the highlights of his testimony were discussed later by Representative Lucien N. Nedzi, Democrat of Michigan, who is chairman of the sub-who is chairman of the sub-committee. Mr. Nedzi quoted Mr. Hunt as saying that he had used some of the equipment—a wig identification papers, and other items—obtained from the C.I.A. in the summer of 1971 for sev-eral projects in addition to the break-in of the California psy-chiatrist's office. Asked if these activities were illegal, Mr. Nedzi replied: "They were to my mind." However, he declined to say what the activities were.

However, he declined to say what the activities were. It had been disclosed pre-viously — during grand jury questioning and court proce-dures—that Hunt had partici-pated in breaking into the psy-chiatrist's office in September, 1971, was the first indication of C.I.A. equipment being used by Hunt in other break-ins. by Hunt in other break-ins. Hunt was involved in a White House project investigat-ing Dr. Ellsberg's connection with the disclosure of the se-oret Pentagon papers describing United States involvement in Southeast Asia

United States involvement in Southeast Asia. Top C.I.A. officials had dis-closed earlier that the agency had given Hunt various equip-ment and disguises to conduct what Hunt told them was a "one-time interview" on a sec-urity matter urity matter.

Mr. Nedzy said that Hunt's Mr. Nedzy said that Hunt's testimony seemed to indicate that Charles W. Colson, a for-mer White House aide, might have been involved in some of the activities described by Hunt today today. Mr. Colson has maintained that he was not involved in the Watergate events.

Close Relationship Alleged

Mr. Nedzi said that Hunt told the subcommittee that he had been hired for the White House job by Mr. Colson and that he had dealt "very closely" with him with respect to the various projects the so-called "plumb-ers" were involved in." "The plumbers were members of the team set up to investi-gate various leaks on security matters, including the Pentagon papers. Mr. Nedzi said that Hunt told papers.

papers. Asked who had opened the door to the C.I.A. for Hunt, Mr. Nedzi said: "He did mention he had spoken with Mr. Colson with respect to possible C.I.A. assistance. It was not clear as to how Mr. Colson would han-dle it. It was left at that.' Mr. Colson told a Senate pa-nel last week that he had men-tioned to John D. Ehrlichman, a top White House aide at the time, that Hunt was anxious to establish "liaison" with the agency to interview Col. Lucien to establish "liaison" with the agency to interview Col. Lucien Conein ,a former agency opera-tive in Southeast Asia. Mr. Colson insisted, however, that he did not call the C.I.A. on behalf of Hunt. Asked if Mr. Colson knew what Hunt wanted the disguise and equipment for, Mr. Nedzi replied: "Yes." He would not elaborate. elaborate.

Cables on Diem Noted

Cables on Diem Noted Mr. Nedzi also quoted Hunt as reaffirming an earlier state-ment that he had been ordered by Mr. Colson to fabricate ca-bles designed to show that the Jonh F. Kennedy Administra-tion was deeply involved in overthrowing the Diem regime in South Vietnam in 1963. Mr. Colson has denied issuing such an order but has said that Mr. Colson has denied issuing such an order but has said that Hunt may have misunderstood something that he told him. Mr. Nedzi said that Hunt, in his testimony today, gave a third version of how he gained access to the C.I.A. that sum-mer. mer.

mer. Gen. Robert Cushman, for-mer deputy director of the C.I.A. and now commandant of the Marine Corps, told Congres-sional panels last month that Mr. Ehrlichman had called him when he was with the agency and asked it to cooperate with Hunt, who had just been hired as a White House security expert.

expert. Mr. Ehrlichman later denied he had called General Cushman and further denied any involvement in gaining agency access for Hunt.