

List of 20 More Called to Testify

Washington

Twenty witnesses are tentatively scheduled to testify before the Senate Select Committee when it resumes its hearing on the Watergate incident after the Independence Day recess.

Committee counsel Sam Dash noted, however, that names may be added to or deleted from the list during the course of the hearings.

The current list:

Former Attorney General John N. Mitchell; President Nixon's former personal counsel, Herbert W. Kalmbach; Anthony Ulasewicz, a former New York policeman; former Nixon campaign official Frederick C. LaRue; former Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian; former presidential assistant Gordon Strachan.

Former presidential domestic affairs adviser John Ehrlichman; H. R. Haldeman, former White House chief of staff; former CIA Director Richard Helms; Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, deputy CIA director; Marine Corps Commandant Robert E. Cushman, former deputy CIA director.

Former acting FBI Director L. Patrick Gray III; former White House aides Egil Krogh Jr. and David Young, former White House secretary Kathleen Chenow; convicted Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt Jr.; lawyers Paul L. O'Brien and Kenneth Wells Parkinson of the Committee for the Re-election of the President, and William O. Bittman, Hunt's lawyer.

Dash said that in addition to these witnesses the committee may also call some of the following:

Richard A. Moore, special counsel to the President, Assistant Attorney General Henry E. Petersen; former Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst and White House aides Lawrence M. Higby, W. Lawrence Howard and Fred Fielding.

Associated Press