

Nixon Wins In Poll's '72 Vote Rerun

By George Gallup

Princeton, N.J.

Two separate measurements in the latest nationwide Gallup survey give further evidence of Watergate's sharp impact on President Nixon's standing with American voters:

- In a rerun of the 1972 presidential contest, President Nixon wins over Senator George McGovern by a far smaller margin than in last fall's election. The latest survey shows Mr. Nixon receiving the support of 53 per cent of registered voters compared with 47 per cent for McGovern. In the election, Mr. Nixon won 62 per cent of the two-party vote to 38 per cent for McGovern.

- Mr. Nixon's current popularity rating remains near his all-time low figure of 44 per cent approval. However, it should be noted that the President's popularity rating has apparently bottomed out and remained virtually unchanged over a period of nearly two months.

The possibility exists that Mr. Nixon's popularity would have been lower than the figure reported today had it not been for the recent visit by Communist Party leader Leonid Brezhnev.

In the latest survey, conducted after John Dean III's charges were made public but prior to his testimony before the Senate Investigating Committee, 45 per cent of all persons interviewed said they approved of the way Mr. Nixon is handling his job as President, while an equal number, 45 per cent, disapproved. Ten per cent expressed no opinion.

Here is the question asked which matches Mr. Nixon against McGovern:

"If the presidential election were being held today, which candidate would you vote for - - Nixon, the Republican, or McGovern the Democrat?"

Following are the national results, based on the choices of registered voters:

Nixon	46%
McGovern	40
Others	5
Undecided	9

Here are the results, with the vote for other candidates excluded and the undecided vote divided equally between Mr. Nixon and McGovern. The actual two-party vote for the 1972 presidential election is given in the following table:

	June Rerun	1972 Election
Nixon	53%	62%
McGovern	47	38

The following question was asked to obtain a reading on Mr. Nixon's performance in office:

"Do you approve or disapprove of the way Mr. Nixon is handling his job as President?"

Here is the trend in Mr. Nixon's popularity since the beginning of the current year:

	Approve %	Disapprove %	No Opinion %
