A.A.C.P. PONDERS NIXON OUSTER BID

Resolution Is Given Little Chance of Adoption NYTimes

By PAUL DELANEY

Special to The New York Times
INDIANAPOLIS, July 5—Dele gates to the 64th convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People here have been asked to adopt a resolution calling for the impeachment of President Nixon, the resignation of Vice President Agnew and new Presdential elections.

The resolution was circulated today by members of the Phila-delphia branch. The resolution is expected to be introduced at the final session tomorrow, but national officials of the associa-tion gave it little chance of adoption by the full convention.

'Election Fraud'

The resolution urges Congres on nullify the 1972 Presidential election "due to widespread election fraud necessitating the tolding of a new Presidential election."

Plection."

The resolution said that the Senate Watergate hearings and grand jury "indicate that illegal surveillance, theft, deliberate sabotage and the infiltration of political organization have violated the sanctity and haken the security of the electoral process in the United States."

It said "The confessed durable security of the confessed durable states."

It said, "The confessed duplicity by numerous White House thaff members and officials conitted to re-elect the President m these criminal activities expose as lies President Nixon's epeated assertions of his ignor ince of these activities and the subsequent efforts by his staff to impede the criminal investigations into these activities.

'Only Consistent'

"We note that the Watergate "We note that the Watergate rimes are only consistent with he political history and style of Richard M. Nixon, a history hat clearly indicates his will-agness to use invasions of privacy, racist innuendoes, political espionage and sabotage when those tactics stand to adjance his ideas (for example, as baneful 'Southern strategy') and strengthen his personal potical power."

"The revelations of the Waterate, coupled with the crisis of "The revelations of the Waterate, coupled with the crisis of onstitutionally delegated paterns of authority, clearly indiate that the peaceful progress, ocial expectations and ideals four democracy have been iciously subverted by dishonsty, insensitivity and crime. his subversion is especially etrimental to the hopes of lack and poor people," the resultion continued.

A call for impeachment of he President was made last aght in a speech by Represent-tive Parren J. Mitchell, Demo-rat of Maryland, Mr. Mitchell aid the House should begin im-eachment proceedings because ne Senate Watergate commit-pe had uncovered information nat makes impeachment un-voidable.

College Mergers

The convention will also take p tomorrow a resolution dealing with the merger of black and white state colleges, a lighly emotional issue among lacks at the convention, many raduates of the black schools hat might disappear with terger.

raduates of the black schools hat might disappear with terger.

However, national N.A.A.C.P. olicy is aimed at dismantling uel colleges, mostly in the outh. The resolution offered y the N.A.A.C.P. leadership diected local branches to involve temselves in the dismantling f dual educational systems to issure merger of racially identiable colleges and universities, rotection of black administrations, teachers and students, and ompositions governing boards hat reflect the racial compositions of the states.

The leadership expects no roblem tomorrow in getting hrough the college resolution nd beating down the impeachment resolution, if the latter ven gets to the floor of the onvention.

Nathaniel Jones, N.A.A.C.P.

nvention. Nathaniel Jones, eneral counsel, said the organ-ation would step up its war n de facto segregation. The onvention has been asked to pprove a $300,000 emergency and, to be financed by assessand, to be financed by assessients on member branches, to nderwrite the legal protection f blacks, considered jeopardied by "the power and wealth f the Federal, state and local overnments arrayed against the N.A.A.C.P. as it seeks to esegregate public schools and botherwise protect Negromericans." mericans."