

Notes on People

The Arkansas Gazette in Little Rock has called on the Senate Watergate committee to allow Martha Mitchell to sit behind her husband, John, when the former Attorney General testifies next week. "She may not be as pretty as Maureen Dean," the newspaper observed in an editorial, "but she certainly caught on quicker to what the Nixon gang was up to."

LAWRENCE VAN GELDER