SFChronicle Nixon Going to Kansas City for FBI Ceremony

San Clemente

San Clemente President Nixon, ending a 17 - day stay in California, will stop in Kansas City on his return to Washington to-day to witness the swear-ing-in of Clarence M. Kelley as new FBI director. Mr. Nixon, who flew to his San Clemente home June 22 with Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev, will speak during the ceremoney at the Kan-sas City federal building. A 20-year veteran of the FBI, Kelley has been police chief of the Missouri city for the past 12 years.

Mr. Nixon is to return to the White House early this evening.

Associated Press