Wife Asserts Mitchell
'Is Completely Honest'

NY Times

WASHINGTON, July 11 (UPI)—Mrs. John N. Mitchell, saying that she was phoning from Washington, "where I'm staying with my husband," told United Press International early today that the former Attorney General was being completely honest with Senate Watergate investigators.

"I want you to know that my husband is absolutely correct in all of his testimony," she said. "He is completely honest. I'm standing completely beside him, because I know he's telling the truth,"

Martha Mitchell has not accompanied her husband in his two days of testimony before the Senate Watergate committee, as have the wives or other key witnesses, and Mr. Mitchell has refused to say where his wife is staying.

Mr. Mitchell resigned as President Nixon's campaign director July 1, 1972, after his wife had issued a public ultimatum that he leave politics or she would leave him.
