

Going Again

AP Wirephoto

President Nixon waved to newsmen as he left the White House yesterday for Camp David, where he will spend the weekend preparing for talks next week with Prime Ministers Gough Whitlam of Australia and Kakeui Tanaka of Japan. Mr. Nixon was accompanied by his wife and Florida neighbor C. G. Bebe Rebozo. The White House indicated the President will also be working on a statement on Watergate.