

Free Vacation Flight Reported For Talmadge

Washington

Senator Herman E. Talmadge (Dem-Ga.), a member of the Senate Watergate committee and an influential member of the Senate, was flown to the Caribbean for a winter vacation this year by a major government contractor, the Washington Star-News said yesterday.

The flight February 9 was sponsored by Rockwell International, formerly known as North American Rockwell Corp., the newspaper said.

Rockwell is a major defense and aerospace contractor.

Talmadge's office had no comment, the Star-News said.

Associated Press