Haldeman Urged Linking All Protests to McGovern

By DAVID E. ROSENBAUM Special to The New York Time

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1-R. H. | on th Administration on Water-Haldeman acknowledged today gate issues.

that he had suggested this year 1972 demonstrations to McGov-the Central Intelligence Agency was asked to block a Water-firmed in testimony before the tral Intelligence; Robert E. Senate Watergate committee Cushman Jr., former deputy di-thate he had proposed "to get rector of C.I.A., and Vernon A. our people to put out the story Walters, the present deputy dion the foreign or Communist rector, are scheduled as witmoney that was used in sup-nesses. port of demonstrations against the President in 1972."

The proposal was contained in a memorandum, dated last Feb. 10, from Mr. Haldeman to John W. Dean 3d, then the White House counsel.

The purpose of putting forth its hearings into next week. his version of the demonstrations, Mr. Halderman said, was to counter Democratic attacks

Tomorrow, the committee will that the White House "tie all begin an inquiry into whether was asked to block a Water-Mr. Haldeman, the former gate investigation. Richard White House chief of staff, con- Helms, former Director of Ceninvestigation. Richard

TAPES

> Senator Ervin said that the committee would not meet

Excerpts from the testimony are on Pages 20 and 21.

Saturday but would continue

In his other testimony today, Mr. Haldeman disclosed that he had taken additional recordings of President Nixon's private conversations home with him early last month. Ordered Schorr Investigated

He also acknowledged that he had ordered a 1971 investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation of Daniel Schorr, a Washington correspondent for the Columbia Broadcasting System, but he said that he could not recall ordering a 24-hour surveillance of Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Democrat, of Massachusetts.

Furtermore, Mr. Haldeman said the list of White House "enemies" given to the committee in June by Mr. Dean was prepared solely to keep foes of the Nixon Administration from receiving such courtesies as invitations to White House dinners.

In his opening statement to the committee on Monday, Mr. Haldeman declared that he had listened to recordings of two of Continued on Page 19, Column 3

Continued From Page 1, Col. 7

Mr. Nixon's conversations with Mr. Dean—the one on Sept. 15, 1972, and the one on March 21, 1973. He took the tape of the September meeting to his Maryland home, he said. Yesterday, he disclosed that he had taken other tapes to his home, but he did not say how many. He also said that he had kept the tape of the September meeting for two days, leaving it in a closet when he was not at home. at home.

Today, Mr. Haldeman sup-Today, Mr. Haldeman sup-plied even more details about the recordings. He said that he had taken tapes of three other days of meetings home, along with separate reordings of the President's telephone calls on those dates those dates. He said he could not recall the dates of the other tapes, al-though he believed they were between February and April of this year.

He decided not to listen to he decided not to listen to these other tapes, Mr. Haldeman said, because he had not been present at the meetings, as he had on Sept. 15 and March 21.

Difficulties Cited

Difficulties Cited Asked why he had taken the tapes home& Mr. Haldeman re-plied that it would have seen "difficulty and awkward" to listen to them in the "open suite" in the Executive Office Building that he was allowed to use as an office while he was use as an office while he was preparing for his Watergate testimony. Mr. Haldeman resigned from the President's staff April 30 and gave up his White House office a few days after that. He repeated that he could need office a few days after that. He repeated that he could not recall whether he or Mr. Nixon first suggested that he listen to the recordings, which have be-come the subject of a court bat-tle between the President on one hand, and the committee prosecutor, Archibald Cox, on the other. Mr. Haldeman did say how.

Mr. Haldeman did say, how-ever, that he had discussed the

Mr. Haldeman did say, how-ever, that he had discussed the ever, that he had discussed the tapes with Alexander M. Haig, his successor as White House chief of staff, or J. Fred Buz-hardt, special counsel to the President on Watergate matters, or Stephen B. Bull, an assistant to Mr. Haig. He could not re-member, however, which of them he talked with, he said. Conversations in Dispute Senator Sam J. Ervin Jr., the Committee chairman, has said that the recordings would pro-vide the "best evidence" of what was said a tmeetings in-volving Mr. Nixon and Mr. Dean.

volving Mr. Nixon and Mr. Dean. Mr. Dean testified last June that at the Sept. 15 meeting it was clear to him that Mr. Nixon was aware of the Water-gate cover-up. At the March 21 meeting, Mr. Dean swore, he told the President the entire story of the burglary and the sover-up.

story of the Durgan, sover-up. Mr. Nixon has said, however, that he knew no details of the Watergate scandal until March 21 and that he still did not have the full picture then. In discussing the Sept. 15 conversation, Mr. Haldeman

Agnew Assures Aides Government Proceeds

WASHINGTON, July 31 —Vice President Agnew as-sured some United States

---Vice President Agnew as-sured some United States representatives abroad Tues-day that the nation's Govern-ment was being carried for-ward despite Watergate. "Government is proceed-ing here in Washington, and new initiatives for peace are going forward," he told 55 agriculture attachés from United Embassies overseas at the Agriculture Depart-ment.

"Those of us in the exec-utive branch of Government must continue to serve the people," he added.

said that he did not recall Mr. Dean's having used the word, "contain," to describe how the Watergate investigation had been stopped short of high levels in the White House or Mr. Nixon's re-election commit-tee. Mr. Dean swore that he had used that word. "Cancer' Warning Recalled Mr. Haldeman also said that Mr. Dean told Mr. Nixon that he was compiling an "enemies" list and that Mr. Nixon voiced his approval. Mr. Dean testified that the President had ordered him at that meeting to start collecting a list of White House foes. foes.

In answer to a question from the committee's chief counsel, Samuel Dash, Mr. Haldeman said thrat he did remember Mr. Dean's having informed Mr. Nixon on March 21 that Water-gate was a "cancer growing on the Presidency."

Mr. Haldeman concluded his testimony, which began Mon-day afternoon, with a brief statement that his years in the White House had been the "high point" in his life.

It was important that the truth about the Watergate scan-dal came out, he declared, so that the public could know "where the failure wasn't." "That failure wasn't on the part of the vast majority of the fine men and women who have served and are serving Presi-dent Nixon in his attempt to lead this country," he said. Under sharp questioning from Senator Lowell P. Wei-cker Jr., Republican of Con-necticut, Mr. Haldeman insist-ed that there was evidence to support his contention that the support his contention that the support his contention that the campaign staff of Senator George McGovern, the Demo-cratic Presidential candidate, and the Communist party were financing demonstrations against Mr. Nixon during the 1972 campaign. Mr. Haldeman said that he hoped to provide the commit-tee with the evidence but that he was unable to do so today. Senator Weiker has repeat-

Senator Weiker has repeat-edly added drama to the hear-ings in recent weeks, citing what he perceives to be the political immorality of the Nix-on Administration.

Today, saying that he was "emotionally wrought up" over the Haldeman memorandum, he told the witness: "This type of business here, when it ema-nates from the counsels in the land, I think is a disgrace." Senator Weicker also pro-duced another memorandum — this one from the Nixon cam-paign's chief advance men te this one from the Nixon cam-paign's chief advance man to Mr. Haldeman — on which Mr. Handeman had scribbled in his broad handwriting "good" and "great" in the margin next to suggestions that Mr. Nixon and the Rev. Billy Graham be con-fronted with violent demon-strations and obscene signs during a Presidential trip to Charlotte, N.C., in 1971. Both of the memorandums on which Mr. Weicker ques-tioned Mr. Haldeman had been given the committee, under subpoena, by Mr. Dean. Mr. Weicker declared that Subpoena, by Mr. Dean. Mr. Weicker declared that the one from the advance man, Ronald H. Walker, indicated that the Nixon campaign wel-combed rowdy demonstrations against the President as a way to present Mr. Nixon as an un-derdog derdog. But Mr. Haldeman said that the opposite was true. He was pleased that demonstrations were planned, he said, because they would show the public that such demonstrations were not spontaneous.

HALDEMAN MEMO

HALDEMAN MEMO Following is the memoran-dum from Mr. Haldeman to Mr. Dean: We need to get our people to put out the story on the foreign or Communist money that was used in support of demonstrations against the President in 1972. We should tie all 1972 demonstrations to tie all 1972 demonstrations to [Senator George] McGovern and thus to the Democrats as part of the peace movement.

The investigation should be brought to include the peace movement which lead directly to McGovern and Teddy Kennedy. This is a good counter-offensive to be developed. In this connection we need to itemize all the disruptions such as the Century Plaza, San Francisco, Statue of Liberty, and so on. You should definitely order

You should definitely order [L. Patrick] Gray to go ahead on the F.B.I. investigation against those who tapped Nixon and Agnew in 1968. We need to develop the plan on to what extent the Democrats were responsible for the demonstrations that lod to violence or dispution the Fort Wayne story now---that we ran a clean campaign compared to theirs of libel and slander such as against [C. G.] Rebozo, etc. We could let Evans and Novak put it out and then be asked about it to make thet point that we knew and the President said it was not to be used under [sic] circum-stances. In any event, we have to play a very hard game on this whole thing and get our investigations going as a investigations going as a counter move.

Samuel Dash, center, chief counsel to the Watergate committee, confers with Senator Lowell P. Weicker Jr., whose legislative aide, A. Searle Field, is at left.

5:00 p. ni. MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. II. R. HALDEMAN FROM: RONALD H. WALKERS RF: CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA . DEMONSTRATIONS The most recent intelligence that has been received from the Advanceman Bill Henkel and the USSS is that we will have demonstrators in Charlotte tomorrow. The number is running between 100 and 200; the Advanceman's gut reaction is between [150 and 200. They will be violent: they will have extremely obscene size, as has been indicated by their back have cohscene signs, as has been indicated by their handbills. It will not only be directed toward the President, but also toward Billy Ste Graham. They will have smoke hombs, and have every intention of disrupting the arrival and trying to blitz the Coliseum in order 500 to disrupt the dedication ceremony. According to Henkel and the USSS, and it is also indicated on the handbills being distributed by the demonstrators, the Charlotte police department is extremely lough and will probably use force to prevent any possible disruption of the motorcade or the President's movements.

Part of a memorandum that was received by H. R. Haldeman while he was assistant to President Nixon. Senator Lowell P. Weicker Jr., Republican of Connecticut, questioned Mr. Haldeman about underlinings and marginal comments in Haldeman handwriting.

Associated Press