Rebozo's Bank To Open Records

By William Chapman Washington Post Staff Writer

The Senate Watergate com- or laundered funds were chanmittee has subpoenaed records nelled through the bank." of accounts at a Florida bank whose chief officer is Presi- mittee subpoenas "were redent Nixon's close friend, ceived by the bank for fur-Charles G. (Bebe) Rebozo, a nishing records on several bank director acknowledged specified accounts." yesterday.

Thomas H. Wakefield, vice- and will comply fully with the chairman and vice president subpoenas," he said. of the Key Biscayne Bank and Wakefield has been a close Trust Co., asserted in Miami the records will show "that neither the bank nor Mr. Rebozo was involved in any improper or illegal activity.'

Members and staff assistants of the Senate committee refused to say what type of information was sought by the even intimated that any illegal widely reported."

Wakefield said the two com-

"The bank is cooperating

Wakefield has been a close associate of Rebozo for many years. Rebozo is chairman of the board and bank president.

Wakefield included in his statement an attack on the news media which he accused of making Rebozo a "target" because of his friendship with the President. Wakefield said ported Wednesday night that the Internal Revenue the subpoenas were in connection with reports of the subpoenas were in connection. tion with reports of illegal turns for the last three years campaign funds. "and not for six years as re-In a statement, Wakefield ported by the media." Further-observed that "no directors more, he said, the IRS has not have been subpoenaed nor has subpoenaed records held eiany representative of the fed-ther by Rebozo or the bank eral government announced or "as was erroneously and even intimeted that any illustal widely reported."