Survey Rates Kopechne Death Worse Than Watergate Case

Kevin P. Phillips and Albert questions about WatergateSindlinger report that a na- which cited only the buggingtionwide telephone survey has and the July 18, 1969, accident found that more Americans at Chappaquiddick Island, think "the drownning of Mary Mass., where Miss Kopechne Jo Kopechne at Chappaquid- was drowned in an automobile dick" was "more morally rep- that had been driven by Senarehensible" than "the bugging tor Edward M. Kennedy, Demof the Democratic National ocrat of Massachusetts.
Committee" at Watergate.
The survey of 2,238 people
The survey of 2,238 people between July 20 and 27 also paquiddick in your chap The Chappaquiddick incident which concerns you most?" than the watergate bugging total of 40 per cent cited Chapthan the Watergate bugging paquiddick, 37 per cent named when asked, "Which concerns Watergate, 16 per cent said you the most?" The survey they were equally concerned was conducted by Sindlinger $&$ about both, 4 per cent said
Co, of Swarthmore, Pa.
It was devised by Mr. Sindlinger, the company's president, and Mr. Phillips. Mr. Sindinger is a financial and politiin feel is the more morally reprea faverite poll-taker had hensible-which is worse-the Charles W. Colson, ta fer of drowning of Mary Jo Kopechne Counsel to President Nixon Mr at Chappaquiddick or the bug Phinlins is the author of "Th ging of the Democratic Na Phings is the author on The Committee?"
Emerging Republican Majority" who served as a special assist-

The interviewers reported作 44 per cent named Chapthe 1968 Presidential campaign paquiddick, 34 per cent cited and when Mr. Mitchell was At- both equally reprehensible, 12 torney General.
 asked sevieral comparative to answer.

