Nixon Continues Work On Watergate Rebuttal

President Nixon returned to Camp David yesterday, accompanied by his principal speech plans are carried out, aides say he will hold his first news conference since March writer, to continue work on the respect to the resp the response he plans to make next week to Watergate charges.

Raymond K. Price, who accompanied Mr. Nixon on a cruise down the Potomac Tuesday night, flew with him to Camp David yesterday for a mindefinite stay.

In speech promptly after the Senate Watergate investigating committee suspended its hearings.

But White House officials have said that the President an indefinite stay.

While official spokesmen have declined to say exactly when the President will speak, it was indicated that he is planning to address the nation by the middle of next week.

According to present intenwhen the President will speak, it was indicated that he is planning to address the nation by the middle of next week.

According to present intentions, he will issue at the same time an extensive white paper giving detailed replies to charges made against him in the Senate Watergate hearings.

until the hearings were ended Tuesday, and that more time is required by the lawyers in preparing a documented rebuttal to the many charges made during the hearings.

For almost the first time, White House aides acknowledge that the President is spending a vast amount of time on Watergate and on his response to the charges leveled against him

While Mr. Nixon and Price are concentrating on the television address, White House lawyers are working on a doc-ument to be released concur-rently with the speech or shortly thereafter.

within a few days after the television address, Mr. Nixon is expected to fly to San Clemente, Calif., probably remaining there until after Labor Day.

The President returned to the White House Tuesday morning and shortly thereafter met for almost two hours with Vice President Agnew.

Mrs. Nixon and their days there are the Tricia Company.

There had been reports that Mr. Nixon would like to make his speech promptly after the Senate Watergate investigate.

have said that the President could not prepare a full reply until the hearings were ended response to the charges leveled against him.

He spent last weekend at Camp David working alone, then drove back to the mountain retreat Monday afternoon