THE CBS RADIO NETWORK

FIRST LINE REPORT

Friday, August 10, 1973 6:23 a.m. EDT

RATHER: First Line Report. News and analysis. Dan Rather, CBS News, the White House. Good moring. Rethinking the unthinkable. After this.

(ANNOUNCEMENT)

Lee Marvey Oswald, the man who shot President Kennedy. Did he ever know or have contact with E. Howard Hunt or Gordon Liddy or any of the others in that mysterious and dangerous crew convicted in the Watergate crime? And lunder investigation still in connection with a series of other criinal acts including burgularizing homes, offices, and embassies? What about Sirhan, the assassin of Robert Kennedy and Jammes Earl Ray, the killer of Martin Luther King, and the Brither assassin of Robert Kennedy and Jammes Earl Ray, the killer of Martin Luther King, and the Brither of them know any of these people? If so, how and how well. Under normal circumstances, and in more normal times, these questions would not be asked. Unfortunately for us all, circumstances a ed from the elite strata of politics and with no stake or ambition in partisan politican macinations, the questions are there, Wandering the backroads of their minds. Especially about the assassination of President Kennedy. Doubts long have negged. The Warren Commission concluded on t at President Kennedy. No conspiracy was the conclusion. Please pardon the personal reference, b lowed closely the Warren investigation, conducted for CDS News and with CBS News' full resources and independent investigation, then and ever since this reporter was in Dallas when Kennedy was shot, foland independent investigation, then and ever since this reporter had defended the Warren Commission was asked them why could not the investigation be open-ended? Why could at least a skeleton inve sigatory staff be left? It was admittedly by all concerned, who couse decision, but President John what the Harren Commission, its investigation and its reporting. We know now and did alone. Mr. Johnson apparently wasn't because his friend John Conselly also wounded in the shooti: ef President Kennedy said he wasn't absolutely convinced that twas best for the country and the case to end the Warren Commission, this investigation and its reporting. We know now and did alone. Mr. Johnson apap

(ANHOUNCEMENT)

This is Dan Rather reporting on First Line Report from CBS News.

• •