
SFChronicle AUG 13 1973
Nixon Back In

Washington

Washington

President Nixon flew back to the White House by helicopter yesterday after spending six days at his Camp David retreat preparing his public response to the Watergate controversy.

The President plans to deliver the response in a televised speech from the White House at a yet-to-be-decided time about the middle of the week.

Associated Press
