

'On With The Show'

WASHINGTON — President Nixon's speech on the Watergate bugging scandal was a washout as far as some television viewers here were concerned.

A local television station, which interrupted a film called "Duel" to televise the speech, said 47 of the 126 viewers who called in said: "Get the President off the air and get on with the movie."

Reuters

---