Master Sergeant Grant A. Schulke has been placed in a psychiatric ward by the Air Force, apparently because he said he wanted to file court-martial charges against President Nixon in the Watergate case.

An Air Force spokesman said Schulke "was asked and he agreed" to undergo 72 hours of psychiatric examination at Fitzsimmons General Hospital, Denver.

Schulke, a 43-year-old career Air Force non-commissioned officer, told a reporter in a telephone interview Tuesday that he had discussed with a legal officer at Lowry Air Force evidence.

"I figured somebody should make the commander-in-chief stand to justice", Schulke said.

He quoted the legal officer as saying the sergeant could not bring charges against Mr. Nixon under the Uniform Code of Military Justice, because the President was not subject to military law even though he is commander-in-chief of the armed forces.

The telephone interview was brief because Schulke said he had been summoned to the Office of Special Investigation at the air base.
