Richardson Told Agnew Of Evidence Against Him

By NICHOLAS GAGE

cial to The New York Tin

torney General Elliot L. Richard- in the summer of 1971 in reson met with Vice President turn for his help in getting Agnew early this month and someone a job in the General outlined the substance of the Services Administration. evidence gathered by Federal the Vice President.

that the key elements of the participating in kickbacks or case presented to the Vice Pres- witnessing any being made. ident were the following:

businessmen told prosecutors that they gave cash payments if I was ever present when any to Agnew associates in return thing like that [payment of a for state and government contracts and they believed that some of the money was being a thing is ridiculous." funneled to Mr. Agnew.

¶At least three of the Agnew associates named by the businessmen told the prosecutors that they turned over some of personal attorney, and told him the payments to Mr. Agnew. The three were Lester Matz and Jerome B. Wolff, engineering was going to draw in the Vice President because they would tell what they know the sources Allen I. Green, once one of Mr. Agnew's closest friends.

¶Mr. Matz told prosecutors

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15—At-Vice President Agnew of $2,500

Mr. Matz said he turned over prosecutors in Baltimore against the money to Mr. Agnew in the presence of J. Walter Jones, The New York Times has a Maryland banker and political learned from sources close to supporter of Mr. Agnew. But the investigation of Mr. Agnew Mr. Jones has publicly denied Reached at his home in An-More than 20 Maryland napolis tonight, Mr. Jones said, "If you're asking me directly

> Some time before they began to talk to prosecutors, Mr. Matz and Mr. Wolff went to George White, Mr. Agnew's long-time that if the Federal investigation in Baltimore was not stopped it was going to draw in the Vice tell what they knew, the sources said.

A spokesman for the Justice

that he made one payment to Continued on Page 27, Column 1

Continued From Page 1, Col. 3

Department confirmed night that Mr. Richardson had met with Mr. Agnew about the case: He said the meeting was held on Aug. 6 to supplement the information contained in the letter received the previous week by the Vice President from Gorge Beall, the United States Attorney in Baltimore, informing Mr. Agnew that he was under investigation.

While none of the former aides who said that they separately gave kickbacks to Mr. Agnew have been corroborated by other witnesses, the sources said the cumulative evidence collected thus far was enough for the prosecutors to seek an indictment against Mr. Agnew and that they intended to do so.

The three former Agnew associates have reportedly emphasized that they made cash payments to Mr. Agnew when was Vice President, as well when he was Governor of Maryland.

Mr. Green has told prosecu-

Mr. Agnew about five times a year until 1969, and slightly less often since he became Vice President, the sources said.

Mr. Green was said to be the strongest witness against Mr. Agnew thus far because of his reputation and the fact that he was one of Mr. Agnew's closest friends.

Brother of U.S. Attorney

Mr. Green is president of Green Associates, Inc., an en-gineering concern base in Tow-son, Md. One of the concern's seven vice persident is Richard Beall, a brother of George Beall, the United States Attorney for the United States Attorney for Maryland who is heading the investigation.

Mr. Matz is a partner in the Baltimore engineering consultants firm of Matz, Childs and Associates, and Mr. Wolff is president of Greiner Environmental Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of the J. E. Greiner Company, another engineering consultants concern. Both the Matz and the Wolff concerns won numerous contracts with the state while Mr. Agnew was the state while Mr. Agnew was Governor.

Other former associates of Mr. Agnew who have been questioned by the prosecutors in the case include I. H. Hammerman, a Baltimore invest-ment broker. It is not known what position he has taken about cooperating in the inwas one of Mr. Agnew's closest financial advisers when Mr. Agnew was Governor. Two other close advisers to Mr. Agnew on financial matters were Mr.

on financial matters were Wolff and Mr. Jones.
The specific statutes that prosecutors have based their investigation on are bribery, conspiracy, tax evasion and vi-olation of the Bobbs Act, which deals with extortion.

Mr. Agnew denounced reports that he took kickbacks as "damhed lies" last Wednesday, the day after news of the investigation involving him the investigation involving min broke.

The Vice President said at that time that he had no ex-pectation of being indicted and had no intention of resigning from office. He also said ru-mors that he had done any-thing illegal as Governor of thing illegal as Governor of Maryland or as Vice President were "false, scurrilous and malicious." maliciouș."