

'Kalmbach Still Nixon Lawyer'

[UPI on story in LATimes 19 Aug, which says Kalmbach has continued to act as Nixon's attorney, despite a "widespread impression fostered by confusing White House press statements" that he had been dismissed," and that he will play a key role in drafting a White House statement on Nixon's acquisition of San Clemente. His firm (Kalmbach, Demarco, Knapp & Chillingworth, Los Angeles and Newport Beach) did all the legal work in negotiating for and acquiring the property, and is still retained for "a wide variety of West Coast tasks for the President and his family."]
