Two new Hunt titles, both using his own name, of course, will be in bookstores shortly. The first is a novel, "The berlin Ending" (reviewed in PW, June 25), which has a print order of 20,000 and is due August 28 from Putnam. The second, a nonfiction account of the Bay of Pigs flased and Hunt's own involvement in it, is called "Give Us This Day," and Arlington House will have it on November 7.

Mr. Hunt's future literary plans remain indefinite, though there seems to be no doubt that he will continue writing. According to Mr. MacCampbell, he doesn't want to talk about what he'll do next because there iscens to be some question as to whether the Danbury prison authorities, will permit him to, write. Still, books have been written in prisons before, and it looks as though Mr. Hunt will have more time for the hierary endeavor in the immediate future i that in the immediate past.
